Foreword from THE CHAIRMAN

We are glad to welcome a new edition of the America Property Exhibition (APEX) 2026, a premier global platform connecting leading developers, investors, and real estate professionals. The new edition of APEX is coming to the city of Las Vegas for the first time in history, more than just an exhibition, APEX Las Vegas is a dynamic environment for networking, knowledge exchange, and investment opportunities. It brings together decision makers, innovators, and industry leaders who are committed to driving growth, shaping sustainable futures, and unlocking new possibilities in real estate.

As we embark on three days of opportunity, collaboration, and discovery, we invite you to engage with thought leaders, explore groundbreaking projects, and take part in shaping the future of property investment on a global scale.”

David Wang
Chairman, MIE GROUP

APEX Las Vegas EVENT OVERVIEW

The 4th Edition of APEX – America's Property Exhibition is set for the World Market Center, Las Vegas on 23 – 25 September 2026.

APEX Las Vegas aims to bring together leading developers, global investors, financial institutions, government agencies, real estate professionals, and service providers to showcase opportunities across the U.S. and international property markets. Positioned in the entertainment capital of the world, APEX Las Vegas 2026 will deliver an outstanding B2B, B2C & B2G platform for networking, market exploration, and high-value property deals.

The Operations Layer Of AI: How Real Estate Owners Turn Technology Investments Into Measurable Value

The session examines what happens after an owner selects an AI or PropTech solution: how to identify the right use cases, redesign workflows, prepare employees, manage data and access, drive adoption, and measure whether the investment is improving efficiency, visibility, and asset performance. Using practical examples from a real estate operating environment, the talk gives owners and international investors a framework for evaluating not only the technology itself, but also the organizational readiness and execution required to generate lasting ROI.

How Family Offices Are Allocating Capital to US Real Estate in 2026

Family offices now represent one of the largest pools of private capital targeting US real estate. Panel explores: asset allocation frameworks (typical 15–25% RE allocation), preferred structures for family office RE investment (co-investment, direct, fund), risk management in a higher-rate environment, how Nevada's tax environment and asset protection laws are influencing family office domicile decisions, and what family offices want from developers and operators. Directly relevant to HNI audience.

Investor Tools You May Be Missing: 1031 Exchanges, Financing Strategies & Lesser-Known Opportunities

Many investors are familiar with traditional financing and acquisition strategies, but fewer understand the full range of tools that may be available to help structure, finance, or improve a real estate investment. This session explores strategies such as 1031 exchanges, alternative financing options, incentive programs, and other lesser-known resources investors may overlook. Attendees will gain a practical understanding of where these tools can fit into the investment process, what questions to ask, and how to identify opportunities that may improve the structure and long-term value of a deal.
